

Suggested Prayer points for Sunday 11th October 2020

Praise God for who he is

- Thank our Lord that he works out his purposes in our lives and that he is always ready to forgive.

The World

- Pray for Romania (Europe). Thank God that after many years under communist persecution that the church in Romania is actively growing through many churches being planted. Pray for the young people of Romania to turn to Christ.
- Pray for peace in the area of Armenia and Azerbaijan. Pray for peacemakers in this conflict.
- Bring before the Lord the nations where COVID-19 is out of control. Pray for a vaccine. Pray for a limiting of the financial impact and that many will turn to Christ.

Singapore

- Thank the Lord that COVID-19 cases are remaining low. Pray that we will see God's good hand in this and not think that it was only 'our efforts'.
- Pray against those who seek to run internet scams and hurt others (emotionally/financially). Pray for the police as they investigate these crimes.
- Pray for our government as it supports the poor and the needy.

St George's.

- Pray for those who are divorced in our church. Pray for the Lord's emotional and spiritual healing and his comfort. Pray that we would be a supportive church. Pray for all who are affected by divorce; children, parents/grandparents, friends etc.
- (Pray for a St George's Mission Partner) Kokkos Children's Centre Cambodia: "We requested and - you have prayed for - more local people to join our team, and donation of laptops to replace our aging ones. We are happy to report the Lord has answered our prayers. We have now 7 staff and received support towards our digital needs" (including from St George's).
- Pray for those who care medically for Rosemary, Christina, Kah Seng, Caitlin and Tee Dhye.
- Pray for all who mourn including Jenny Stead and the family after the death of her husband Peter and for Babe and the family after the death of her husband Berndt.
- Praise God for the birth of twins, a girl (Amélie Aerin) and boy (Matthias Aeshin) to Deborah and Wijnand.