

Suggested Prayer points for Sunday 13th Sept 2020

Praise God for who he is

- Thank our Lord Jesus for the power he has shown us in the resurrection and thank Him for the same power that will resurrect our bodies.

The World

- Pray for Nepal (Asia). Thank God for the work of the Anglican Deanery of Nepal. Freedom of religion is guaranteed by law, but only in limited measures. Non-Hindus cannot proselytize. If they do, they risk fines, imprisonment and possible expulsion. Despite this law, the Church in Nepal grows because of courageous evangelism. Many natural disasters occur in Nepal and COVID has been challenging.
- Ask the Lord to send out more people (even us) into places where there are very few Christians to help share Christ. Pray that we who stay at home will share him too.
- Pray for world cooperation in develop and distributing a COVID-19 vaccine (if and when one is found)

Singapore

- Pray for wisdom for the government in regard to COVID-19 health measures as well as wisdom in financially supporting those in need.
- Pray for those who work in the aged care sector, including domestic helpers. Pray for everything that is needed to care for the aged physically, emotionally and spiritually.
- Pray for the Archbishop of Canterbury; Justin Welby as he tries to work at leading the Anglican Churches in the way of Christ. May he have God's wisdom and passion.

St George's.

- Pray about the possibility of restarting our 3 Services if MCCY allow us to have 50 + 50. Pray that we will open up safely and wisely.
- Thank the Lord for Annette and her work for the church in all things financial. Thank the Lord for her longstanding service to us at St George's (almost 20 years)
- (Pray for a St George's Mission Partner) Adopt a Dorm – (now ended) Thank God for the opportunity to care physically, emotionally and spiritually for a large number of guest workers in their dormitories for the past 4 months, all in the name and power of Christ. Thank God too for those who donated. Pray that the work done will impact many lives for Christ.
- Pray for the sick Joanna, Rosemary, Peter, Kah Seng, Caitlin and Tee Dhye.
