

Suggested Prayer points for Sunday 15th November 2020

Praise God for who he is

- Thank God for the Bible so that we can know the truth about God and our salvation.

The World

- Pray for Tajikistan (Asia). Pray for the Tajik Church which is small, only a few thousand but it is growing. Tajikistan is poor and war torn. Pray for good government
- Pray for our Christian witness in the world that we, the followers of Christ, would live for Christ and our persecution will come because we obey Christ and not for our bad behaviour in our community/world (Such as abuse of Children, adultery etc)
- Continue to pray for true peace in the conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan. A peace deal has been signed. Caught in between the fighting are many Christians.

Singapore

- Thank God for the freedom of religious assembly in Singapore. Pray as we share our faith in the nation that we will continue to have freedom.
- Thank the Lord for those who serve us in workplace safety and health. Pray for our workplaces (including homes for those who work there) that they will be safe.
- Pray for wisdom for our government as it leads us educationally, financially and in foreign affairs.

St George's.

- Pray for the upcoming Helper's Christmas Service. Thank God for those who help us in our homes. Pray for families left behind in order to serve in Singapore. Pray for those who employ helpers that they would be gracious and generous.
- Thank God for the safe birth of Anna Watkinson. Pray for Anna and Sharon and Neil.
- (Pray for a St George's Mission Partner) Evangelical Theological College of Asia – Thank God for good students/studying well. For their exam period in mid-November. Thank God for the appointment of a General Manager (Wilson). Pray he helps our administrative needs. For Andrew, pray for a restful break coming up in December & for a medical matter arising from a head injury 18 months ago. Pray for Drs and for healing.
- (Pray for a St George's Mission Partner) Christian Outreach to the Handicapped – ask for God's provision amid the economic downturn, enabling COH operations caring for people with intellectual disability. For wisdom to handle challenges ahead that our quality care for our clients will not be compromised.
- Pray for the families of those who are sick; Rosemary, Christina, Kah Seng, Caitlin, Tee Dhye, Henry and Yu Ping.
