

Suggested Prayer points for Sunday 25th October 2020

Praise God for who he is

- Thank God for his sustaining power over the world, over history, over us his family.

The World

- Pray for Slovakia (Europe). Pray for the church, that the Lord would be pleased to bring revival to draw people out of their nominalism and come alive for the Lord. Pray for fresh new ways to reach the lost of Slovakia for the Lord. Pray for political stability in the country.
- Continue to pray for peace between Armenia and Azerbaijan.
- Pray for the US presidential election and its effects on our world. Pray for God to show his sovereignty and his glory in the process and outcome.

Singapore

- Pray for our government; bring before the Lord our President Halimah Yacob and Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong. Ask the Lord to grant them wisdom
- Thank the Lord for those who work in Singapore's excellent public transport system; for administrators, track workers, mechanics, drivers, cleaners, conductors etc.
- Pray for unity in the churches of Singapore as we plan how to bring Christ to the people of Singapore during Christmas.

St George's.

- Praise God for those who are single in our church. Thank God for his faithfulness to them and their faithfulness to him. Pray for those who struggle with being single and pray for those who have become single again through divorce or death in the transition.
- Bring before the Lord thankfulness for the ministry of Rev. Dr Soh Guan Chin over the 6 years that he has served among us at St George's. Pray for him in his 'retirement' which will mean more work with the Joshua Mission, sharing God's word with church leaders who have little theological training. Pray God blessings.
- (Pray for a St George's Mission Partner) Hope Children's Centre (Laos) - HOPE Homes are full, and God is still sending us cases. We are therefore now praying about opening a second home for girls, and for God's guidance concerning this. Religious persecution has increased this year. We know of 10 cases of Christians who have been put in prisons for "disrupting the peace". They are promised release if they recant their faith. Please pray for our brothers and sisters in prison, that they will be strengthened to not recant.
- Pray for those the families who care for Rena, Rosemary, Christina, Kah Seng, Caitlin and Tee Dhye.
